“ Jennifer and family,
I am so sorry for the loss of your Granny. It's been a very long month, and you can forever be grateful that you had the opportunity and privilege of being with her as she made her journey toward her heavenly home. You can rest assured that she is now painfree and completely whole as she waits for your family to be reunited one day. I love you; and if you need anything, call me.

“ Debra,Dennis, and Dan,
My heart is breaking for you because I know just how you are feeling right now. You are in my prayers daily and remember that the pain will pass but the memories last forever.
We love all of you.
